CUSTOMER ADVISORY
PORT CONGESTION SURCHARGE
November 14, 2014

Dear Valued Customers:

The port congestion problem in the US West Coast has not improved since the summer. Congestion remains widespread and conditions continue to deteriorate on a daily basis. Under the current circumstances and for quite some time, YANG MING has been dealing with severe and widespread operational difficulties all along the West Coast. In the meantime, YANG MING has absorbed significant additional costs and expenses brought on by the congestion.

Consequently, please be advised that YANG MING will assess its Port Congestion Surcharge on all US-bound shipments arriving at any U.S. West Coast port or Canadian Gateway port on or after November 17, 2014.

Effective : Nov 17th, 2014 (Arrival Date)

ORIGIN: ALL ORIGINS

DESTINATION: All US DESTINATIONS via PSW/PNW (including Canadian Port) gateway
